

Guadeloupe

communication objective	skills	linguistic objectives
Greetings and goodbyes	Establishing basic social contact using polite expressions	Formal and informal: vocabulary and expressions Common polite expressions
Introducing oneself	Giving details about one's identity Talking about where one comes from Talking about one's job Talking about hobbies, expressing likes and dislikes Asking questions on the same topics	Alphabet, spelling and numbers. Present tense of most common verbs Genders, singular and plural Basic question words + question structures
Locating important information	Locating and understanding basic information relating to everyday needs when in a foreign country (signs, posters, timetables, etc.)	Everyday vocabulary

Martinique

communication objective	skills	linguistic objectives
Obtaining goods and services	Going shopping, eating out, going to the doctor's, etc...	Asking questions Adjective agreement Possessive and demonstrative adjectives
Talking about one's world	Talking about people Talking about where one lives Talking about one's likes and dislikes	Adjectives Present tense Prepositions relating to location Vocabulary relating to the home Verbs expressing preference Infinitive
Looking for information	Finding useful information related to everyday life: classifieds, programmes and postcards	Vocabulary and expressions relating to time Common abbreviations

Réunion

communication objective	skills	linguistic objectives
Following instructions	Understanding instructions Writing and understanding a recipe Expressing and understanding permission, possibility, will, obligation	Imperative The following verbs: pouvoir, vouloir, savoir and falloir
Travelling, commuting	Following directions Taking public transport, taxis, etc. Understanding announcements in train stations and airports	Imperative Prepositions Vocabulary related to the town
Inviting and responding to invitations	Organising events Being able to understand and express acceptance, hesitation, suggestions, offers	Near future Polite expressions (including the use of the conditional) and to extend invitations Object pronouns (direct and indirect)

Polynésie

communication objectives	skills	linguistic objectives
Writing simple letters	Compile a letter Using written style	Letter-writing vocabulary The use of register within writing
Using the media	Understanding the gist of news reports and newspaper articles	Familiarising oneself with the past tenses Summarising text Establishing chronology
Reporting past events	Describing an event Reading and writing a postcard	Past tenses: imperfect and perfect

This document may not be re-produced without prior consent.