2. Administrative Fee:

- An administrative fee of £65 is required at the time of registration. This includes a learning diary and learning aids.
- If moving up a level class requires additional resources, a fee of £35 will be requested for new books.
- For students requiring a letter of invitation for a short-term study visa, the administrative fee is £125. Payment for the English course must be made before the letter is issued. In the event the visa is not obtained, written justification is required, and the course fee will be refunded (within 30 days) except for £250, which will be retained as an administrative cost.

3. Class Schedule:

- Classes run throughout the year, except for a two-week break during the Christmas holiday.
- If class attendance and registration fall below four students per class, we reserve the right to end the course and refund students on a pro-rata basis.

- We do not charge students for bank holidays when the school is closed; those days are added to the end of the membership.
- Time taken off for personal reasons will not be credited back to the course booking.

4 VICI Terms & Conditions

5. Management Discretion:

- At the management's discretion, hours missed can be added to another course or postponed within a 12-month period as a credit of time, not money, provided at least two weeks of classes are missed.
- This must be due to serious medical reasons or other significant issues, and formal justification will be required.
- The 'flexi' month option seen in our 'offers' section on our tariff card refers to when students sign up for 6 or 12 months. They are offered the option to use some time off they may want to have by paying a fee of £35 per week of administrative cost.
 - For example, if someone has a 6-month membership and wants to take time off to travel or for children's bank holidays for a couple of weeks, they pay £70, and these 2 weeks are added to the end of the course calendar. This option can be used for up to 4 weeks.

- Payment for English classes must be made in advance and at the time of booking.
- Please note that a calendar month counts as four weeks of tuition.
- When the school is closed for bank holidays or holidays, these days are added to the course calendar as extra days of tuition at the end of the course, with no money refunded.
- Attendance for part of the week will count as a whole week.
- In the event of a class cancellation by VICI, the student will be offered a rescheduled class or an online class. If neither option suits the student, they may request a refund for the cancelled session, which will be provided within 30 days.
- Any missed classes due to student absence will not be refunded or rescheduled.
- Payments are non-refundable.
